{Wake County Public Safety - Fire/Rescue Report} – 2nd Vice President Chris Perry

Next Rookie/Essentials School will be Aug 27-28 and Sept. 17-18.

Individuals intending to attend schools/classes at the Fire Training Center are encouraged to pre-register. Many students are not pre-registering and we don't want any classes to be cancelled due to lack of students, especially when there is sufficient interest.

Radio programming is scheduled to begin soon. Please see region representatives on the CAD/800 user's group if you have any suggestions.

Pumper/Tankers are scheduled to begin arriving in October with Tankers to follow soon. Brush trucks are also expected to be finished soon.

{New Business} – President Sue-Lynn Hinson

A nominating committee has been appointed to select and present a slate of officers at the next meeting. The committee will be:

David Price, Northern Region
Jim Jones, Southern Region
Rodney Privette, Eastern Region
Robert Waxman, Western Region

Chief Mark Haraway presented an update on the transition to NIMS, including a description of a training session to be held in Wake County in March 2006.

Treasurer Bryant Woodall reminded everyone of upcoming NC State Fireman's Association/NC Fire Chiefs Association conference being held from Wednesday, August 24th to Saturday, August 27th.

{Old Business} – President Sue-Lynn Hinson

Reminded everyone of scholarships awarded by the Association. A $500 firefighter scholarship and a $500 family member scholarship will be awarded. The application deadline has been extended to September 1, 2005.

{Program}

Chaplain Gene Moore provided a reflection from events surrounding the death of Eastern Wake Firefighter Todd Blanchard.

Agent Matt Bivens with the NC State Bureau of Investigation presented a program and demonstration on the Bureau's accelerant detection canine program.
